

Advocacy Services

Brown & Brown Absence Services Group is a nationwide advocacy organization dedicated to helping people apply for and receive Social Security Disability (SSDI) benefits. We have helped over 200,000 clients receive Social Security Disability awards and take pride in our FAST and FAVORABLE decisions.

SSDI ADVOCACY SERVICES

SSDI eligibility and verification screening

Our experienced Client Advocates screen individuals over the phone to fully understand their unique situation, determine their SSDI eligibility, explain the process of filing for SSDI, and answer any and all questions.

Social Security Disability advocacy

We support individuals throughout the entire application process, including initial applications, denials, reconsiderations, appeals, and the hearing level. We help SSDI applicants complete all required forms and questionnaires; this includes requesting and submitting medical records, providing regular claim status updates, and providing an experienced attorney to represent claimants at their disability hearing, if necessary.

Medicare advocacy

Social Security Disability beneficiaries become eligible for Medicare after a waiting period. The licensed Medicare specialists at Aevo Insurance Services, a subsidiary of Brown & Brown, are available to help people navigate the complex world of Medicare and choose the plan that meets their unique healthcare and financial needs.

SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY OVERVIEW

SSDI is funded by a portion of the payroll taxes (FICA) that individuals pay while working. These contributions help Social Security determine what a claimant's SSDI benefit amount will be.

SSDI benefits are paid to qualifying workers who can't work due to severe illnesses or injuries that are expected to last at least one (1) year or result in death.

SSDI is an insurance benefit that individuals have paid for and earned. SSDI is not welfare. To qualify for SSDI benefits, most disabled workers must have worked and paid FICA taxes for at least five (5) out of the last ten (10) years.

HOW WE STAND APART

We listen. We take the time to fully understand claimants' unique situations and disabling medical conditions so that we can effectively advocate on their behalf. Our extensive experience enables us to build the strongest case possible.

We support. We are here for our clients every step of the way.

We educate. We help individuals navigate the complex rules and regulations of Social Security and Medicare.

We guide. We help individuals through the long, complex application process. We complete applications, analyze medical records, meet deadlines, schedule hearings, and interact regularly with the Social Security Administration – so that claimants don't have to.
