

DR. NELSON ALUYA, MBBS, MD is trained in pediatrics and internal medicine. He is currently the Chief Medical Officer (CMO) of the Newark Community Health Centers, Newark, New Jersey and Assistant Professor of Medicine at the New Jersey Medical School, Rutgers University, Newark, New Jersey. He was also the medical director of Sinai Acute rehabilitation center. Dr. Aluya has been a guest speaker at numerous local and international academic workshops, conferences and seminars. He is the recipient of numerous local and international humanitarian and peer articles, and his awards include the Global Humanitarian Award, the Ambassador for Peace awarded by the Universal Peace Federation. Dr. Aluya is the National President of the Nigerian American Public Affairs Committee, USA (NAPAC USA), immediate past president of the New Jersey Medical Association (NJMA), the immediate Chairman of the Association of Nigerian Physicians in the Americas (ANPA), President of HopeEdge International and the Vice President of Impact Life International. Dr. Aluya continues to dedicate his utmost effort to teaching, research and to improving health care delivery especially in the areas of Covid 19 infection, Covid 19 vaccine awareness, and diabetes mellitus.